CARROLL UNIVERSITY

FIRST.
FOREMOST.
FORWARD.
FOR 180 YEARS!

Welcome from the President

Welcome to Carroll University, home of the Pioneers and Wisconsin's first, four-year institution of higher learning. Since 1846, students have selected Carroll as their preferred choice in preparation for lives of purpose, meaning and achievement.

Carroll is distinguished by its culture, which values respect, integrity, stewardship, inclusiveness and service to others. We are a community that looks outward and asks how we can make a difference by leaving things better than we found them. This is underscored through the cross-cultural emphasis woven throughout our curriculum and service opportunities that begin on day one for first-year students.

We encourage each student to embrace opportunities, be open to new experiences, step outside their boundaries and explore. We focus on delivering programs and support that allow each student to be successful.

Pioneers are passionate about making their mark on the world. That journey is unique to every one of our students... and it begins at Carroll.

First. Foremost. Forward.
Cindy Gnadinger
President

What does it mean to be a Pioneer?

It means being part of a rich history and tradition that continues to shape our campus community. It's engaging in the spirit of exploration and discovery that began with our founders. Pioneers are eager to know more about the world in which they live and how they will make their mark by contributing a fresh perspective. At Carroll, we live by values that lead us to strive for excellence, stretch past boundaries, and treat those we meet with respect, kindness and dignity.

2025-26 College of Distinction
for Business, Career Development, Education, Military Support and Nursing.

U.S. News & World Report:
In the Regional Universities Midwest category, Carroll was ranked 38th overall, 15th in Undergraduate Teaching, 24th in Best Value, and 43rd in Best Colleges for Veterans among nearly 170 colleges.

#1 in Nursing:
Carroll University is ranked #1 in Wisconsin according to the Nursing Process and Nursing Schools Almanac, which takes into consideration NCLEX-RN first-time pass rates, academic quality and reputation.

95+ areas of study

151 full-time Faculty (81.5% of faculty hold terminal degrees)

"I chose Carroll because it has a great marketing and business program. The small campus size also attracted me. Small class sizes and being in a perfect environment to participate and interact with people. I also get to have classmates and professors to get to know on a deeper level."

Academic Support Services

Learning Commons

There's no "one size fits all" when it comes to learning. We recognize that effective learning strategies are built around the individual student. That's why we developed the Learning Commons (LC). The LC offers a pioneering approach to academic success that ensures students have access to the resources they need most at every point of their college experience. This campus hub is located on the lower level of the Todd Wehr Memorial Library and is one of our most utilized academic resources.

- Academic Strategy Workshops
- Drop-in Tutoring
- English Conversation Partners
- Math Assistance
- Reading & Writing Lab
- Resources for Graduate Students
- Spanish Conversation Tutoring
- Supplemental Instruction
- Writing Assistance and Resources

Carroll3

The Carroll3 Program offers a 25 percent savings on the net cost of an undergraduate degree at Carroll University. This means less money borrowed from student loans and an added year of earning potential that's gained by completing college early.

There is no additional cost to Carroll3 Program students for taking extra credits during the fall and spring semesters. The eight required credits to be completed outside of the fall and spring semesters will be charged independently, however, those credits can easily be covered by AP credits, college credit, etc. so most students won't incur any additional cost.

Special Policy for International Students

International students who are required by Carroll to demonstrate English proficiency can receive 16 elective credits for exceeding the University benchmark on an approved English proficiency exam and completing ENG170 with a grade of B or higher. For more information on proficiency exam policies, contact your international admission counselor at international@carrollu.edu.

The policy awarding 16 elective credits to international students who excel in an English proficiency exam and complete ENG170 with a grade of B or higher is crucial for those in the Carroll3 program. It allows International students to meet their credit requirements without needing summer classes, thus maintaining the program's three-year completion goal and reducing overall educational costs and time spent in school.

— Sarah Faltis, Czechia & Germany

Double major in Global Studies and History, Minor in Art (Completing all three in just three years through the Carroll3 program)

When Sarah Faltis began exploring universities in the U.S., she wanted more than strong academics. She was looking for a place that felt personal, welcoming and full of opportunity. With guidance from one of Carroll University's international partners, she found the right fit.

Today, Sarah is pursuing a double major in Global Studies and History, along with a minor in Art. Thanks to Carroll's accelerated Carroll3 program, she is on track to complete all three in just three years.

"I didn't want to feel like just another student. At Carroll, I feel like I belong. Professors know me, the staff supports me and I've made friends from all over the world."

— Linh Mai Nhat Nguyen, Vietnam

B.S. Chemistry, Pre-Health Emphasis

Now: Ph.D. Researcher in Chemical Ecology at iDiv and Friedrich Schiller University Jena

Linh Mai Nhat Nguyen came to Carroll University with a curiosity for science and left with the research experience, mentorship and confidence to pursue a career in biodiversity research. While completing her B.S. in Chemistry with a Pre-Health Emphasis, Linh received both the Pioneer Scholar Grant and the Tri-Beta Research Grant. These awards allowed her to conduct independent research, shaping her future path in chemical ecology.

She presented her work at major scientific conferences, including the International Society of Chemical Ecology and Southeast Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation. She earned awards for both Best Talk and Best Poster, and credits these experiences with strengthening her skills in scientific communication and deepening her commitment to academic research.

"My passion for plant chemistry and ecological interactions began at Carroll. The hands-on research and the mentorship I received helped me discover what I truly wanted to do."

— Victoria Asuar Aznárez, Spain

English and Writing

Victoria Asuar Aznárez had multiple opportunities to work one-on-one with English faculty during her time at Carroll. In her second year of college, Victoria was awarded the PioScholar research scholarship, which allowed her to conduct independent research on diversity in college and its cinematographic representation. Under the mentorship of Dr. Galow, she explored this topic and began writing her own TV script, combining academic research with creative writing.

"Carroll's smaller class sizes make it easy to build strong relationships with professors, and I've had the opportunity to meet one-on-one with most of them and receive feedback on my research or creative fiction projects."

— Ansuya Shrestha, Nepal

Computer Science and Mathematics

Coming to Wisconsin was a big step, but Carroll quickly became a place where Ansuya Shrestha felt supported and included.

Getting involved on campus has made a huge difference in her experience. Ansuya is currently the Vice President of the Global Pioneer Society (GPS), where she helps organize events that bring international and domestic students together. She also serves as an International Orientation Mentor, helping new students adjust to life here just like others helped Ansuya when she first arrived.

"At Carroll, I found a home away from home—a place where my dreams are supported, my voice is heard, and my journey as an international student is truly cherished."

International Services and Engagement

Office of International Services and Engagement provides leadership and a collaborative University-wide approach to internationalization through its work around immigration, campus-wide programming, and cultural support and services for F-1 international students and international faculty and staff.

Support and Resources

International Services and Engagement primarily provides F-1 student immigration advising, in addition to offering support services specific to our campus community transitioning to the American (and Carroll) campus experience. We provide optional practical training (OPT) support as well as information on tax preparation, first-time advising and registration, and campus services as a first point of contact for our F-1 students.

Orientation Programs and Events

Orientation programming provides:

- Campus safety and conduct
- US Academics and Culture Shock in the Classroom
- US Health Overview
- Maintaining Your F-1 Status
- A variety of sessions helping students familiarize themselves with the Carroll campus and services

Annual programming includes:

- International student dinners and mixers
- International Education Week taking place every November
- President’s Reception for International Students

Student Testimonial: Flavio Toma, Italy

“What I love most about Carroll is the close community. You get to really know everyone, including professors, which makes for a very supportive learning environment.”

– Flavio

Follow our international community on Instagram @carrolluinternational

Dedicated to enriching the experience for fellow international students, Flavio co-founded and led the Global Pioneer Society (GPS) which you can find out more about on page 10. This organization is pivotal in integrating international students into campus life, providing a platform for cultural exchange and mutual support.

Additionally, his role as a summer Residential Assistant allowed him to directly impact the day-to-day lives of students, fostering a welcoming atmosphere.

Flavio’s experience underscores Carroll University’s commitment to its international community, ensuring that students from all backgrounds have the opportunity to thrive and contribute to the university’s dynamic environment.

Did you know? Italian students can transfer up to 30 elective credits from their 13th year of high school. For more details, contact your international counselor.

Maximizing Your International Education: Transfer Your Credits to Carroll

At Carroll University, we acknowledge the value of international education. We accept credit evaluations from members of the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES), including SpanTran. For students from countries where the 13th year of schooling (Italy and Norway etc) is considered equivalent to U.S. undergraduate coursework, there’s an exciting opportunity to earn elective credits. To take advantage of this, simply submit your academic evaluation through our dedicated portal. Reach out to your international admission counselor to learn more.
